University Libraries Section Outstanding
Professional Development Award

winner

ULS OUTSTANDING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AWARD

Recognizes librarians, archivists, or curators whose contributions to providing professional development opportunities for librarians have been especially noteworthy or influential. The effect of these contributions may be the result of continuous or distinguished service to the profession, but may also be the result of extraordinarily active, innovative, or collaborative work that deserves national recognition.

Nominees must have demonstrated at least two of the following criteria:

- Implementing innovative or creative professional development ideas or activities that have measurably impacted library users and/or the profession.
- Active participation in special projects, efforts or initiatives related to providing professional development opportunities that have measurably impacted library users and/or the profession.
- Evidence of service and/or collaboration over time related to providing professional development activities that clearly benefited a number of library professionals and library users.
- Exemplary and influential research and/or scholarship pertaining to professional development for librarians.

Award: Certificate and $1,000 sponsored by Library Juice Academy.
